

Practitioners Convening on Community Monitoring for Accountability in Health

18 – 20 July
Johannesburg, South Africa

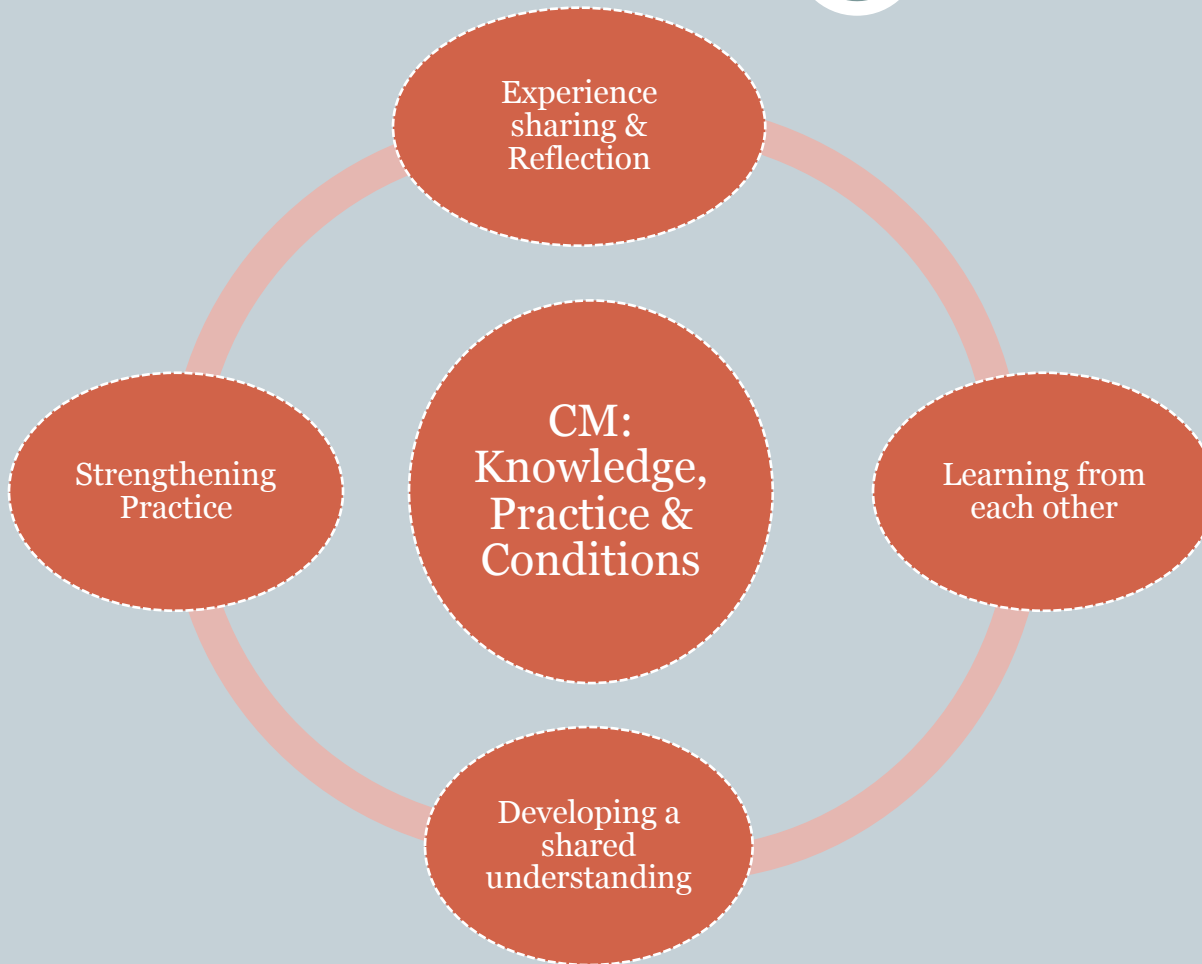

ACCOUNTABILITY AND MONITORING IN HEALTH INITIATIVE

PUBLIC HEALTH PROGRAM

OPEN SOCIETY
FOUNDATIONS

Convening: Processes and Goal

To promote networking and collaboration for a potentially active 'Community of Practice'

Participants

- Truly diverse
 - 41 Participants
 - 12 countries
 - 28 organizations
- Rich and Diverse experience
 - health rights
 - community monitoring
 - budget monitoring

Bangladesh, Brazil, Denmark, Guatemala, India, Kenya, Peru, South Africa, Uganda, United States of America, Zambia and Zimbabwe

Agenda for the Convening

- A collaborative process – AMHI and Convening Advisors
- Flowed from the Objectives of the convening
- Designed to:
 - Meet the objectives of the convening
 - Promote participation
 - Promote reflection based on the practice
 - Promote networking among the participants

What do we hope to achieve? Day 1

Increased clarity

Objectives

Participant Expectations

Convening Processes

Start developing a shared language & understanding

What are we doing?
Introduction to practice

Key Working terms
What do we mean by them?

How are we thinking?
Concept, Frameworks

Creating an environment

Open

Participatory

What do we hope to achieve? Day 2

Increasing Clarity on our community monitoring practice

Methods & Processes, Context & Challenges, Understanding & Measuring Success

Experiences

Scope of work

Key enabling and hindering factors

Challenges

Understanding success

Deepening shared understanding of our work

Awareness of common challenges

Improved networking and flow of communications

What do we hope to achieve? Day 3

Increased Clarity

Available Resource

Knowledge & Technical Support

Needs/Gaps

Challenges of learning, Innovation

Nuanced and shared understanding of the contours of community monitoring

Shared understanding and appreciation of the value of learning processes for improving our work

Shared understanding of the value of an active & engaged learning community

Some basic principles of the convening...

Some basic ground rules...

